

Abstract Landscapes and Inscapes

Westwood- Westwood Gallery is pleased to present an exhibit of original paintings by local contemporary artists centered on color and abstraction inspired by nature. The exhibit opens November 5th and continues until December 5th. A reception to meet the artists will be held Sunday, November 20th from 1-5 pm. The gallery is open to the public and the exhibit will continue through December 5th. Westwood Gallery is located at 10 Westwood Avenue and is open 10-6 Monday thru Saturday. For more information call 201 666 1800 or online at westwoodartgallery.com

The focus of the show is the work of artists initially brought together to provide healing art for waiting rooms and treatment areas at Hackensack University Medical Center at Pascack Valley. Artists Gary Heise, Claire Liebowitz, Judy Bellini, Tara O’Leary, Maud Guilfoyle, and Michael Fitzsimmons, are represented by works in oils, acrylic, pastel, and watercolor. The artists either draw their inspiration from the natural world or create “inscapes” - abstract paintings exploring the psychic landscape of the human mind.

The show also introduces Jane Cooper, a painter and printmaker living in Katonah, NY now represented by Westwood Gallery.
